DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION IN ST. LOUIS CREATES NO STIR

CONSIDERING NAME OF NEXT CHAIRMAN

NOMINEE CONFERES WITH LEADERS OVER CHOICE OF A MANAGER

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, June 14.—Judge Hughes today began discussing the choice of a national chairman who will conduct the campaign. Herbert Parsons, New York; Fred C. Tanner, New York; Hitchcock, William Hayward, New York, and Ralph E. Williams are under consideration. Hughes consented to meet the suffrage leaders in a few days.

SHARP REBUKE FOR CARRANZA

VEILED HINT THAT WILSON MAY DO SOMETHING MANLY IN MEXICO

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The United States answer to Carranza's last note will not be made until after the convention. The delay is thought advisable to eliminate the chance that any action toward Mexico now may be interpreted as prompted by political influence. Secretary Lansing is said to be preparing to administer a sharp rebuke to Carranza.

BRYAN ATTENDS AS SPECTATOR WITHOUT ANY HIDDEN BOOM

Wilson's Portrait the Only One Displayed on the Rotunda, Without Any Evidence of Marshall--President Dictates the Organization.

(By Associated Press.)

ST. LOUIS, June 14.—With the keynote of "Americanism and Peace, Preparedness and Prosperity," the Democratic convention began its first session today at noon. Not a single element was apparent to disturb the harmonious renomination of Wilson and Marshall. Only the picture of Wilson was in front of the speaker's desk inscribed "America First."

Marshall, Secretary J. Bruce Kremer read the roll call and Governor Glynn delivered the keynote of the meeting. The prospect of a fight in the convention was dispelled by Bryan's announcement that he did not propose to press any pet plank nor would be in the campaign for nominee. He said Wilson stood with Washington, Adams and Grant, who preserved the peace with honor by their conduct of foreign affairs.

Glynn's declarations upon Americanism that the "policy of the administration as to neutrality is as American as the American flag" caused a demonstration. When he predicted the re-election of Wilson the delegates rose en masse and cheered, with the band helping, until the convention got entirely out of hand. McCombs announced the full list of temporary officers, which was approved.

CAPTURE CAPITAL

CENTER OF BUKOWINA ON THE EVE OF SURRENDERING TO RUSSIA

(By Associated Press.)

PETROGRAD, June 14.—Csernowitz, the capital of Bukowina, is apparently on the eve of surrendering to the Russians, who are reported to have cut off the railway north from the city. Csernowitz is 163 miles southeast of Lemberg and has a population of 68,000.

GERMANS GIVE UP EXHAUSTED

TWELFTH ATTEMPT TO RUSH THE FRENCH ENDS WITH REPULSE

(By Associated Press.)

PARIS, June 14.—Fighting in the vicinity of Verdun has halted through exhaustion. One entire division of Germans was used up in the twelfth attempt to storm the French positions north of Thiaumont. A flanking fire prevented their advance to the Vaux plateau. A violent artillery engagement raged near Vaux last night.

LOS ANGELES BUSINESS MEN TURN OUT BY TENS OF THOUSANDS

(By Associated Press.)

LOS ANGELES, June 14.—Thousands of men and women composing "the voice of the Southwest," transmuted into marching columns, marched today eight abreast in the preparedness parade, each carrying a flag. The parade was set for Flag Day in answer to President Wilson's proclaimed request for some observance of the day after Mayor Charles E. Sebastian issued a proclamation calling upon the people as a mark of patriotism to emulate New York and other cities.

"Volunteers" were called to enlist in the parade by the citizens' committee and more than two hundred towns and villages from the surrounding districts responded with pledges to march. Trades were organized into divisions through the Chamber of Commerce. Military, fraternal, commercial and social organizations were invited and agreed to form units. Fifteen hundred employees of the city were given a holiday to join the parade. Department stores and many small establishments closed to enable 17,000 clerks to increase the long columns.

umns which, according to Mayor Sebastian's announcement, "shall proclaim to the nation that the people here are for preparedness."

The marchers were really to march. Automobiles were barred from the lines and horses were permitted only to the aides of the grand marshal who had need to move faster than tired legs could carry them. Horses also were permitted the artillery contingent. Brigadier General Robert Wankowski, commanding the First Brigade, National Guard of California, directed the military part of the parade. He called out the units of the guardsmen, obtained the co-operation of the naval militia and arranged for the various military veterans bodies to march. One unit was composed of men enrolled in the military training camp of the United States army which is to be held at Monterey in July.

The line of march through the downtown streets, past the reviewing stand before the city hall, was ablaze with color and festooned with flags, pennants and banners in preparedness for the thirty-third triennial convocation of the Knights Templar, which is to be opened here June 17.

Chairman Glynn Opens Democratic Convention

(By Associated Press.)

ST. LOUIS, June 14.—With the assertion that no president since the Civil War has had as crucial problems to solve; and no president has displayed a grasp more sure, a statesmanship more profound, as President Wilson, Hon. Martin H. Glynn, former governor of New York, opened the Democratic national convention here today. Declaring that "Americanism and peace, preparedness and prosperity—are the issues upon which the Democratic party stands, and the heart of democracy sweet, with pride that is more than a pride of party, as it holds the man who has asserted this Americanism, assured this peace, advocated this preparedness and produced this prosperity," he predicted the re-election of President Wilson.

Taking up our foreign relations that have been called into emphatic prominence by the world-wide war, the speaker declared that "We have entered this hall as Democrats; we shall deliberate as Americans."

The policy of neutrality, he argued, is as truly American as the American flag. For two hundred years neutrality was a theory; America made it a fact. "It took Washington and his successors eighty years of endless negotiation to win recognition of American neutrality. And this eighty years of struggle wove the doctrine of neutrality so closely into the warp and woof of our national life that to tear it out now would unravel the very threads of our existence." By the records of history Mr. Glynn maintained that if Washington and Lincoln were right, President Wilson is right. The neutrality that President Wilson stands for today was advocated by Washington, by Hamilton, by Jefferson and by Lincoln.

Lusitania Case
By citing precedents Mr. Glynn justified and defended the course of the President in the Lusitania and similar incidents. "In the face of this record," he asked, "do Republicans regret that when they arraign the policy of the President of the United States today they arraign the policy of Harrison, of Blaine, of Lincoln and of Grant? For the pleasure of criticizing a Democratic President, are they willing to read out of the Republican party the greatest men the Republic party ever had? Are they willing to say that the Republican party of today condemns what Hamilton did in revolutionary days, what Lincoln did in Civil War days and what Grant and Blaine and Harrison did but yesterday."

"In his policy of peaceful negotiations today the President of the United States follows the example set him by the greatest presidents which the Democratic party and the greatest presidents the Republican party ever gave this nation."

Curbing the Trusts
The laws restraining big business from stifling competition, the trades commission act, the movement to foster expansion of American trade, the close union of economic, commercial and financial interests between the United States and the nations of South America are shown to be legislation of the widest benefit. The Underwood tariff, Mr. Glynn characterized as the fairest and the best of all we have enacted. Under the present administration the United States has enjoyed a wonderful era of good business and good times.

The American's ideals and his aspirations served as the basis for the speaker's opening discussion.

In asking for an endorsement of the President's peace policy Mr. Glynn said:

"For two years the world has been afire; the civilization that we know has been torn by the mightiest struggle in its history. Sparks from Europe's conflagration have blazed in our own skies, echoes of her strife have sounded at our very doors. That fire still burns, that struggle still continues, but thus far the United States

WAGE DISPUTE IS UNSETTLED

MANAGERS SAY THE NEXT MOVE IS UP TO THE EMPLOYEES

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, June 14.—Negotiations between railroad managers and employees for a settlement of the wage dispute is hung up on the unwillingness of the railroads to present a "definite answer" to the men's demands. The managers said it was up to the men to continue the conference.

TOM DWYER BECOMES SALT LAKE MANAGER

TONOPAH MAN SECURES PROMPT RECOGNITION IN THE WELLS FARGO SERVICE

Thomas J. Dwyer, former manager of the Wells Fargo express office in Tonopah, has been promoted to manager at Salt Lake, with a staff of forty employees under his direction. Salt Lake is one of the most important offices on the system, and the management has to rustle owing to the presence of competing companies. That is one reason why Wells Fargo placed the Tonopah man on the job, for he is one who won his spurs through demonstrating his efficiency. From Tonopah, Mr. Dwyer was advanced to route agent in Arizona, with headquarters at Phoenix, and then was transferred to El Paso, where he has been since.

ROOSEVELT'S ILLNESS IS NOT TAKEN SERIOUSLY

NEW YORK, June 14.—Reports that Roosevelt is seriously ill are apparently unfounded. During a coughing spell he probably strained a ligament, which will be X-rayed probably tonight.

SIX HISTORICAL FLOATS PROMISED ALREADY FOR 4TH OF JULY PARADE

With the Fourth of July only three weeks away, the committee on preparation for the big celebration is bending every energy to complete arrangements so that the smallest detail will not be overlooked to make the day one long to be remembered and to assure the many visitors a royal welcome and good time.

Miss Dumont, in charge of the Goddess of Liberty contest, is soliciting citizens to enter this event and not only assist in raising funds to defray the cost of the celebration, but also to make this particular feature attractive.

The executive committee has decided now to give a large jiffy dance at the Aldrome on Tuesday evening, June 20, with a full five-piece orchestra in attendance, to assist in raising funds for the Fourth. The Aldrome owners have donated the use of the big pavilion for this occasion and it is hoped a large and enthusiastic crowd will be on hand.

Frank Cavanaugh has been appointed chairman of the street concessions committee and anyone desiring to erect booths or sell articles during the celebration can secure a permit from him. This money also goes into the general fund.

Mrs. Roy Davenport, in charge of the parade for the Fourth, announces she is preparing six enormous floats, all representative of some historical national period. The Elks, with their customary energy and push, have notified her they will participate in the parade with a large body of uniformed men headed by a float, and other fraternal organizations are invited to take part in the parade.

Mrs. Lansborough asks business men to decorate their stores as elaborately as possible this year, as a well decorated town adds much to the pleasure of the occasion and leaves a good impression in the minds of visitors. Liberal prizes will be awarded for the best decorated places of business.

Local teams have signified their intentions to go into training for the big drilling contest on the Fourth and a full set of the rules governing the contest can be obtained from Chief of Police Evans at any time. The executive committee also sent out a joint letter to mine superintendents in the three counties last night inviting them to enter teams.

Considerable interest is being aroused among lovers of horses for the big races and already a number have signified their intention of being on hand to compete for the $100 purse.

WOMEN HAPPY OVER THE PLANK

NEVERTHELESS THE FAIR SEX IS NOT ENTIRELY PLEASED WITH RESULT

(By Associated Press.)

ST. LOUIS, June 14.—The suffragists carried out their "Golden Lane" demonstration beneath a sweltering sun and were enthusiastically received by thousands of delegates and visitors. The women were happy over the reception and their prospects of obtaining a favorable plank in the platform. According to reports the plank that is supposed will carry is not strong enough to satisfy them. The plank declares strongly, it is said, for suffrage, but it does not advocate immediate passage of an amendment.

PLAY PEANUT POLITICS IF IT WOULD ONLY PAY

PRESIDENT STOPS AN EFFORT TO THROW MUD AT HUGHES IN CONVENTION

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Efforts to insert in the Democratic platform a plank favoring a law to prohibit federal judges from leaving the bench to accept an elective office are not countenanced by Wilson, who sent word to the convention he did not want any petty politics played.
